President's Corner for September 2015

By Melissa Woodbury & Marlene Krout

Can you believe that the summer is about over, school has started, Round-Up is almost upon us and it is time to turn our attention to all the activities and meetings that our Program VPs, Karen Allen and Susan Badger Doyle, have arranged for us. Once again we will be starting off the year with a potluck at the Vert on September 3 at 5:30 p.m. Please bring your favorite dish and stories of your summer. Yes, we really will base our program on "What did you do this summer?" Feel free to bring photos and any other mementos. As always, our meetings are open to the public, and this might be a really good time to invite that friend that you have always meant to introduce to AAUW. There is a state-wide push for new members, and we always welcome new faces.

The programs for this coming year look amazing, as usual. We will have an unveiling of the schedule at the September meeting but, for those of you who can't wait, we will say that October's meeting will be on ballot issues and we all know that there will be some very interesting ones on our local ballots. Mark that date, October 1 at 7:00 p.m., again at the Vert.

What would AAUW Pendleton be without a grapefruit sale? Kathy Ward will once again be chairing this project and you can look forward to receiving your lists in October. It looks as though we will be able to use PGG again this year for our distribution day, which is a major worry lifted.

See you all on the 3rd.
