Co-Presidents Corner for December

Susan Doyle, Co-President

The upcoming week is event-filled for Pendleton Branch, with the annual wine tasting on Wednesday and grapefruit delivery on Saturday. The meeting at Great Pacific will have non-alcoholic beverages as well, so that all members can enjoy getting together for this festive holiday occasion.

All our branch events need help from our members. Please let Karen King know if you can work on grapefruit delivery on Saturday, December 6 if you haven't already signed up. Also, Sue Petersen needs more ushers for the EO Symphony on Sunday, December 14. Please let Sue know if you can help. Their contact information is below.

The EO Forum in November on "Food Insecurity" was outstanding and drew a large audience. Mary Davis made the arrangements and moderated the panel as well as other invited food distributors. Congratulations, Mary, well done. Two more EO Forum programs are scheduled for this spring. We hope you will attend this relevant series that AAUW Pendleton Branch helps organize.

The branch directory booklets for 2025-26 will be distributed at the December 3 meeting. The rest will be mailed to those who are not there.

Happy Holidays to you all.

Lunch Bunch Review

Jill Heffner

Once again, Lunch Bunch hit the road, and once again, the weather was perfect for a drive. We had lots of sunshine as Kathy, Kate M., Shannon, Susan D., and I headed down I-84 to Nic's Corner Bistro in Echo. Once again, we were not disappointed with Harriet's recommendation... and I would second that recommendation.

It's a small place (hence the bistro?) but nice, clean, and cozy. The waitress was busy but was very good at fulfilling our requests. The food was really, really good: breakfast bowl with poached egg; veggie wrap; chicken wrap; chicken and greens salad, and grilled cheese sandwich with potatoes. Hopefully, next time Nic won't be out of the apple pull aparts with caramel topping. So, let's do it again...in the spring.

See you at Mac's for December Lunch Bunch, Thursday the 18th.

AAUW Funds

Jill Heffner

What is AAUW Funds? AAUW Funds are financial resources used by AAUW to support its mission of advancing equity for women and girls through various programs. These funds are used for scholarships for post-graduate women and for grants to begin and continue community projects such as STEM and Start Smart.

How can you help create a future where women continue to have access to bias-free education and pay equity? You can help women and young girls by contributing to AAUW Funds. Together is Stronger.

How do you contribute to AAUW Funds? You can go online at aauw.org to contribute, or contribute through your branch AAUW Funds Chair (that would be me) by filling out the form (on the next page in this newsletter) and sending it to me at 3303 SW La Dow Ave along with your check made payable to AAUW.
